

REMOTE 2009 Conference and Expo

Sponsorship & Exhibit Opportunities

October 29-30 • Grand Hyatt San Antonio • San Antonio, TX

Sponsorship, Exhibiting, and Advertising Opportunities!

Excitement is in the air as we gear up for the 8th annual REMOTE 2009 Conference and EXPO! Set just a few minutes aside today to determine how you can capitalize on the premier event, dedicated 100% to buyers of Remote Monitoring, M2M/Device Networking, Onsite Power, and Security for Remote Sites and Equipment.

Because it has consistently grown each year, never before has timing been so critical when it comes to planning as early as possible for the event. Here are the preliminary steps to get you started.

1) Review Sponsorship and/or Exhibitor Options

The following pages outline various package options. Because they're packed full of incentives in which the value of the packages far exceed the cost, be sure to review the Upper-Level Sponsors before simply going with a basic booth package.

2) Secure the Best Possible Spot on Show Floor via the Online Contract

Booth spaces are allocated in the order of when companies sign up, with the Upper-Level Sponsors having the best opportunities. Priority Position Numbers are assigned based on when the contract comes in. Simply use the online contract, which is a link on the left under "Sponsorship and Exhibitor Information" at www.RemoteExpo.com

3) Maximize the ROI Potential on Your Event Investment

With so many competitors all wanting a slice of the multi-billion dollar industry, brand recognition is crucial when it comes to this market. The best way to stand out is to pair your sponsorship or booth reservation with an ad campaign in REMOTE magazine, on our website, or in our monthly e-newsletters. Special pricing incentives for Sponsors and Exhibitors may apply, so simply inquire for details. A full media kit can be accessed at www.RemoteMediaKit.com

Get on board today - this multi-billion dollar market is waiting to see what you have to offer!
